I. Mission

The mission of Leadership Hendricks County is to seek, prepare, involve, and sustain leaders from diverse backgrounds to address community and countywide changes. Our vision is to develop quality leaders serving Hendricks County.

We believe:

- leaders define the strength of the community,
- leaders give back to our community,
- in lifelong learning and development of leaders, and
- in empowering leaders to succeed.

II. Our History

Leadership Hendricks County (LHC) is a nonprofit organization created in 1992 to provide a selected group of citizens the background and information they need to take on effective leadership roles in the Hendricks County community. The concept of a broad-based community leadership development program in Hendricks County was brought about by the efforts of the Agriculture Advisory Council of Purdue Extension Hendricks County as they began to develop a training program for the agriculture community. In their research, the need emerged to develop a broader base of community leadership opportunities.

In January 1993, the first class of Leadership Hendricks County was selected to participate in a series of day long seminars and programs developed to enhance their leadership skills and knowledge of Hendricks County's growing needs and opportunities. In April of that year, the organization became incorporated with a 501(C)(3) classification.

As demand for Leadership Hendricks County's programs has grown, the Board of Directors has accommodated. Youth Leadership Hendricks County (YLHC) began its first class in August 1998 and included 28 sophomores representing all six of the county's school corporations. Youth Encouraging Philanthropy allowed Youth Leadership Hendricks County participants to take what they learned back to their high schools and communities from 2007 to 2012. LHC Aware was established in 2014 to offer continuing education and networking for Leadership Hendricks County alumni.

As of 2017, Leadership Hendricks County has trained more than 500 adults and over 600 youth leaders. Leadership Hendricks County continues to educate groups of local leaders to be more acutely attuned to the county's problems, needs, opportunities, and resources. Program graduates bring sharper leadership skills, energies focused on solving specific problems, and a network of associates with the talents and abilities to create a blueprint for the community and Hendricks County's future.

III. Program Description

Program Goals:

- Increase awareness of Hendricks County
- Develop as leaders through understanding of self, others, and community
- Engage within the community and the Leadership Hendricks County organization

Leadership Hendricks County is comprised of the following elements:

- Opening Retreat in January
The tone for the entire class year is set during a two day, overnight session in which participants get to know each other, discuss goals for the year and learn how to build a team that can work together effectively. We use a variety of informative (and often entertaining) instruments to help them better understand their own strengths and challenges, as well as how to work with people whose strengths and challenges are different. They discuss issues facing Hendricks County and ways to address issues they feel are most important.
- Monthly Program Days in February through October
These full-day programs provide access to speakers who address specified topics relevant to the local community. Every effort is made to ensure that presenters represent diverse backgrounds and experiences. Monthly program days expose participants to opportunities and challenges within our community and provide leadership development to enable participants to respond to community needs. For the full, detailed description of each program day, please see "Program Day Descriptions" attached.
- Closing Retreat in November
This program day represents the end of the program, but it's just the beginning of the participants' involvement in Leadership Hendricks County and our community. During a session to identify their strengths, they reflect on the year and how they plan to use their new knowledge. We work with our newest members of Leadership Hendricks County to set goals and identify their role in community involvement.
- Leadership Topics Covered
Real Colors Temperament Assessment, visioning & project assessment, effective communication, group norms, cultural inclusion, effective meetings, public-private partnerships, strong customer service, building strong teams, mediation & compromise, generational dynamics, messaging for a cause, community conversations, community involvement & philanthropy, volunteer & board responsibilities, StrengthsFinder, priorities and goal setting.
- Team Capstone Project
In addition to monthly program days and leadership development modules, Leadership Hendricks County includes a Team Capstone Project as a graduation requirement. The Team Capstone Project is designed to give participants a hands-on community enhancement experience, deepen their knowledge of Hendricks County's challenges, and improve their skills as team members. It includes a work product and presentation. For further information on this project, see "Team Capstone Project" attached.

PURPOSE

In addition to classroom sessions and leadership development modules, Leadership Hendricks County includes a Team Capstone Project as a graduation requirement. The Team Capstone Project is designed to give participants a hands-on community enhancement experience, deepen their knowledge of Hendricks County's challenges and improve their skills as team members.

PROJECT PHASES

Your team begins its Capstone project at your opening retreat, and you are responsible for completing it by the closing retreat in November.

- During the opening retreat, you:
  - Form your Capstone team
  - Designate a communications person to keep in touch with the team members and LHC Executive Director, and
  - Set a date to gather with your team to begin your project
- Your team should agree upon a community need to address. Capstone is your group's answer to that need.
- Your team receives summaries of past projects. Complete projects can be found at www.LeadershipHendricksCounty.org (under Resources for Leaders and Team Capstone Projects).
- Your team may meet as often as needed during your LHC year, although meetings must be separate from LHC class days.
- By April 1, your communications person must contact LHC's Executive Director with the title and topic of your project.
- April, At least one member of your team makes a two-minute presentation about your topic and plans to the LHC Board of Directors to receive feedback and suggestions for additional resources.
- By October 1, your team must submit a one-paragraph written summary of the project.
- Submit an electronic copy of your final report to the Executive Director before the closing retreat and bring one printed report to the closing retreat.
- At the closing retreat, your team has no more than 10 minutes to present your project. You may choose any presentation method, but every member of the team should be engaged and involved.

TOPIC SELECTION

Because Leadership Hendricks County is about developing your leadership skills and sharpening your ability to apply them to community needs, we do not assign your group a Capstone topic. Instead, we want your group to pursue a topic that is meaningful and important to you. Over our program's history, topics have been every bit as varied as our participants.

Any topic that addresses important issues facing Hendricks County and its residents is acceptable. We hope your topic focuses on helping or improving the community in some way. Capstone has three goals:

- Deepen your knowledge of Hendricks County and its challenges
- Give you the opportunity to participate in a hands-on effort to address those challenges
- Make you a more effective team member in everything you do

Capstone's value is in the experience of discovery, the knowledge gained on the road to understanding, the development of consensus and the creation of a solution. If your project also manages to make Hendricks County a better place to live, work or play, that's great!

Your investigation should focus on facts, rather than opinions. It should not be a case history of how something was accomplished -- unless that experience involved a unique or innovative solution that guides future county leaders.

Often, topics emerge from the concerns and questions posed by the class at the opening retreat. Those concerns and questions frequently spotlight issues such as:

Homelessness	Economic Development
Transportation	Education
Energy	Health Care
Environment	Government

Your Capstone project should be:

- Interesting to your team
- Intended to discover something
- Supported by the entire team
- Researchable and/or doable

REPORTS FROM YOUR TEAM

Progress Reports. Throughout the year, your Capstone team's communications person may be asked to give brief reports at class days addressing the progress you are making, significant findings, hurdles that are difficult to overcome and any other pertinent information.

Written Summary. Each team must submit a 2-to-4-sentence summary of their project to the Executive Director by October 1. It is okay if your topic has shifted along the way. Each summary is added to the Team Report Synopsis for future classes to read. If you believe that your Capstone will be advanced by the current team or could be advanced by a future Capstone Project team, please indicate this in the summary.

- Summary Example: “In response to the overwhelming input regarding economic development, not only to attract new business to Hendricks County, but to also develop existing and emerging businesses, the Economic Development team has developed the Hendricks County Business Resource Guide. This guide features many different resources that can assist businesses, including networking, funding, State and County resources, workforce development, higher education, etc. It is the hope of the team that the guide can ever evolve and be offered through various outlets, including the HCEDP and Chamber offices, and possibly be a PDF link on those websites as well. 2013 Capstone Team will continue to update this project in the future, specific needs include additional help updating the information and developing a distribution plan. Contact: Bugs Bunny.”

Final Report. Each Capstone team is required to provide one printed original and an electronic copy of a final report to the Executive Director. These reports are placed on the LHC website and in LHC’s permanent files. The cover sheet for the report should include the following items:

- LHC Team Capstone Project
- Title of Capstone
- Names of team members
- Date of report

The report itself should include:

- Summary of Capstone (one paragraph)
- The community need that Capstone addresses
- The team’s Capstone process
- Any results of the effort / Work Product
- Lessons learned from the Capstone project
- Final Presentation
- If giving a Powerpoint presentation for the final presentation, it may serve as your report IF it includes all the details requested. Please print slides 6 to a page and it does not need to be in color.

Work Product. If your project includes a work product such as a brochure, etc. Please be sure to give credit to LHC. For example, include a note which reads: This brochure was produced by Capstone Team of Leadership Hendricks County Class of 2014 (members include: Izzy Good, etc.).

Final Presentation. At the closing retreat, your team has no more than 10 minutes to present your project. You may choose any presentation method, but every member of the team should be engaged and involved. These presentations should be polished and professional. This presentation is mandatory.
