

Dedicated Money Management Websites:

Great option for kids, teens, parents, teachers

<http://www.themint.org/index.html>

Dedicated financial resource from Indiana's Secretary of State office

<https://www.in.gov/sos/indianamoneywise/index.htm>

Site includes links to budget worksheets that don't require any special apps/programs

<https://www.consumercredit.com/financial-education/budgeting>

Good article discussing why to budget, and how to begin

<https://www.thebalance.com/budgeting-4074043>

<https://www.thebalance.com/top-10-budget-software-apps-1293609>

Along with budgeting, includes suggestion on how to save money on groceries, insurance, etc.

<https://www.moneymanagement.org/budget-guides>

This article lists different tools to use based on specific goals/need

<https://www.nerdwallet.com/blog/finance/budgeting-saving-tools/>

Good for those in their 20's to start planning & tracking

<https://www.buxfer.com/>

Online Budgeting Tools:

Easy to begin using. Free first month, then $4.95/mo.

<https://pearbudget.com/>

Budgetsimple is free, upgraded version for $4.99/mo

<https://www.budgetsimple.com/>

Major News Websites:

Basic and relatively short article stressing the importance of talking to kids about finance and why parents don't have the conversation

<https://www.cnn.com/2017/09/13/health/money-talking-to-kids-parenting/index.html>

Includes links to teachers and students to consider in budgeting:

<https://www.usnews.com/education/blogs/high-school-notes/2014/03/03/3-ways-to-engage-high-schoolers-in-personal-finance>

Comprehensive Program(s):

Dave Ramsey Foundation programs available in self-study, home school or group study.

<https://www.daveramsey.com/tools>

Elementary Age – Financial Peace Jr.

Middle School Age – Foundations in Personal Finance (Middle School Edition)

High School Age – Foundations in Personal Finance (High School Edition)

Hendricks County High School Course Offerings:

Avon: Course Number 0211 – Personal Financial Responsibility (Grades 11-12)

Brownsburg: Course Number 6577/6578 – Principles of Business Management (Grades 9-12)
(includes learning about personal finance)

Cascade: Course Number 4540 - Personal Financial Responsibility (Grade 11-12)

Danville: Personal Financial Responsibility (Grades 10-12) (required for Danville sophomores)

Plainfield: Course Number 4540 – Personal Financial Responsibility (Grades 11-12)

Tri-West: Does not appear to offer a Personal Finance Responsibility class (does have several business classes & a Preparing for College/Careers class that may provide related information)

Teacher/Curriculum Focused:

State Educational Guidelines & Tools for Personal Finance from Oklahoma which is viewed as a leader in this field:

<http://sde.ok.gov/sde/personal-financial-literacy>

<http://sde.ok.gov/sde/personal-financial-literacy-teacher-and-student-materials>

A study that connects the work performed by state schools to actual results for students:

<https://www.federalreserve.gov/pubs/feds/2014/201468/201468pap.pdf>

Video for Introducing the Basic Workings of the Economy:

How the Economic Machine Works:

<https://www.bridgewater.com/research-library/how-the-economic-machine-works/>

Disclaimer: This information is being provided as a community service project in 2018. There is a nearly endless amount of information on this topic that can be gained from additional research. Leadership Hendricks County is not endorsing any of the links listed, nor guaranteeing their accuracy. This list of available information is provided with the intent to provide a convenient hub of various options that exist for different people's different budgeting needs and education.